Located in the charming historic Spanish-style town of Ojai 14 miles from the Pacific Ocean, 35 miles south of Santa Barbara and 73 miles northwest of Los Angeles.

Ojai’s unique east-west orientation attracted the Chumash Indians, the original inhabitants of this area who revered it as a place of healing, as well as contemporary spiritual seekers who ascribe mystical powers to this valley that is still called “The Nest.” Today, the Ojai Valley is a haven for artists, writers and movie stars who find inspiration in Ojai’s serene beauty.

HISTORY In 1923, Edward Drummond Libbey, wealthy Ohio glass manufacturer and philanthropist, built a country club and golf course for residents and visitors. He commissioned famed architect Wallace Neff to design the clubhouse in the traditional Spanish Colonial style of Southern California.
