

Ending the Battle Between Spa-goers and Golfers

February 1, 2010. (Ojai, CA) – Chances are, you can either be classified as a spa-enthusiast or a golfer. But, when a couple comprises one of each, what are you to do? Ojai Valley Inn & Spa has the perfect solution called The Complete Deal. This package combines unlimited golf and a complimentary spa treatment daily, ending once and for all the stress created by having to choose between the golf course and the destination spa.

“We are fortunate to have the ideal facility for both spa enthusiast and the golfer,” said Janis Clapoff, managing director of Ojai Valley Inn & Spa. “It is rare to find a resort that combines a world-class spa with a golf course that has been home to seven PGA Senior Tour events.”

Ms. Clapoff continues, “Both golfers and spa-goers share a passion. To the golfer, it’s a chance to make that illusive hole-in-one, or to emulate the success of a PGA Tour professional on a course that they have played. To the spa enthusiast, it’s the opportunity to experience a new or unique treatment, and to savor a day to recharge one’s batteries, unwind, and rejuvenate. At Ojai Valley Inn & Spa, there is no compromise – golf and spa by day, and share each other’s company by the warmth of a fireplace in the evenings.”

The Complete Deal is perfect for Valentine’s Day and is available through April 26, 2010. Guests booking suites receive complimentary breakfast as well. More information is available on the web site www.ojairesort.com.
